PRESS RELEASE

British Ladies Motocross Championship

Roy Barton, ACU Motocross Manager is pleased to inform you of the latest entrant for the British Ladies Motocross Championship meeting at Howton Court, Herefordshire on 16th September 2007.

Ninth in the FIM Women's Motocross World Cup, Natalie Kane from Ireland has recently entered the event, giving the British World Cup Competitors a high standard of ability to aim for. In the recent second round of the World Cup in The Netherlands on 2nd September, Natalie finished second, in both Motos to Ladies Champion, Katherine Prumm.

The number of entries received for Howton Court, whilst not oversubscribed, is enough to ensure the competition will definitely take place. However, the quality of the entries will certainly guarantee excellent racing, World Cup competitors who have entered include Sophia Paull, Tess Hayward, Louise Williams and Vicky Parkin.

Although, the Closing Date for entries has passed, the Oxford Ixion MCC are able to accept late entries for this inaugural event. Competitors wishing to enter should contact the ACU Motocross Department on 01788 566404/566422.

For more information on this press release please contact Brian George, ACU Press Officer 01788 566428 or via e-mail brian@acu.org.uk.
